CHAS. JONES PASSES AWAY IN EUROPE

PROMINENT FOR MANY YEARS IN NEWSPAPER WORLD HERE

MRS. JEROME D. MALEY GETS A MESSAGE SAYING HER FATHER DIED TODAY AT HIS HOME IN ITALY.

A cablegram was received this morning by Mrs. J. D. Maley conveying to her the sad news of the death, earlier in the day, of her father, Col.
Charles Henry Jones, at Ospedaletti, Italy. His wife was with him at the time.

Col. Jones was widely known throughout this country through his connection with the newspaper world and the news of his death will be received with general regret.

Col. Jones was born at Tolburton, Ga., in 1849 and served with distinction in the southern army during the Civil war, at the close of which he went to New York and engaged in literary work, being for many years editor of the Electric magazine, published by Appleton & Company. Later he was editor-in-chief for the Henry Holt company. He has given to the public several works from his own pen, chiefly biographies.

In 1881 Col. Jones came to Jacksonville and started the Times, later buying the Union and consolidating the two papers. He sold the Times-Union in 1889 and removed to St. Louis, where he bought and edited the St. Louis Republic until he had placed it on a splendid basis, when he disposed of it. He had special ability for resuscitating rundown newspapers and following the rehabilitation of the Republic he was engaged in editing the St. Louis Post Dispatch. From St. Louis he went to New York and for two years he was editor-in-chief of the New York World. In addition to his salary he was to receive a percentage on the increased business and this arrangement led to difficulty with Mr. Pulitzer and retirement from the paper. In the litigation which followed the courts decided in Col. Jones' favor, and he was granted his salary for the full ten years' engagement.

Col. Jones retired from active newspaper work 15 years ago, but bought several leading journals in New York. His health broke down about ten years ago and he went to Europe and has lived abroad for the past seven years. Last year he bought a beautifully situated chateau in quaint old Brittany and expected to enjoy the quiet life of a country gentleman.

In the fall Col. Jones came to New York to look after his business interests and was not well when he returned to Europe, though not considered seriously ill, until quite recently.

Col. Jones leaves an only daughter,

TURKEY IS PREPARING FOR WAR

MARTIAL LAW IS DECLARED IN CITY OF CONSTANTINOPLE

NEGOTIATIONS HAVE BEEN STARTED FOR BIG LOAN AND PRISONERS ARE NOW CLOSELY GUARDED.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 27—Martial law within the city was declared today and many arrests have been made. The prisoners have been crowded together and placed under a strong guard.

Negotiations have been started with the Deutsche bank for a loan of $10,000,000 and the Turks are now rapidly preparing for war.

Reports are current that fighting has already started at the Chatalja forts, though no sounds of bombardment have been heard in this city.

Russia Expects War—

ROME, Jan. 27—The Russian ambassador said today he is convinced that war between Turkey and the Balkans will be resumed. He was asked if Russia will intervene in case of war and replied that this is an official secret.

THE DAILY MARKET REPORT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27—Stocks opened quiet and irregular today. Cotton was active and four to six caused a reaction. March was quoted at $12.40 and May at $12.27.

92½c; May pork, $19.30; lard, $10.27;

HEIKE MUST SERVE OUT SENTENCE

PLEA OF IMMUNITY REJECTED
BY SUPREME COURT TODAY

FORMER SECRETARY OF SUGAR
REFINING COMPANY MUST PAY PENALTY FOR PARTICIPATING IN FRAUDS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 — Charles Heike, former secretary of the American Sugar Refining company, must serve the sentence imposed upon him for participating in the sugar weighing frauds, according to a decision rendered by the supreme court today. The court rejected the immunity plea.

Heike was convicted with others.
He had been called as a witness in the Kissel case and, on the grounds that his testimony rendered him immune from prosecution, he fought the sentence, carrying the case to the supreme court. The present case is an appeal from the decision of the United States court of appeals, rendered in October, 1911, and involved the question of whether his testimony in the so-called anti-trust suit entitled him to immunity.

BERGER ASKS INVESTIGATION OF BIG STRIKE

WOULD HAVE CONGRESS LOOK INTO FACTORY CONDITIONS

SOCIALIST MEMBER OF LOWER HOUSE SAYS WHOLE NATION IS ENDANGERED BY METHODS
IN USE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27—On the grounds that vice and crime are being bred by the miserable conditions in the garment workers trade, and that the health of the whole nation is endangered by the manufacture of clothing in "filthy and unsanitary places, saturated with germs of consumption, smallpox, scarlet fever and other contagious diseases," Congressman Victor Berger, socialist, today pressed congress for an investigation into the garment workers' strike now on in New York.

Congressman Berger introduced in the house today a resolution providing for an investigation by a special committee of seven members of congress. He estimates that 100, 000 workers and their families are affected by the strike.

VICTIMS OF FLOODS FACE STARVATION

WAR DEPARTMENT INSTRUCTED TO RENDER AID IMMEDIATELY

BREAK IN LEVEE AT BEULAH IS WIDENING AND ENGINEERS SAY 1,000 SQUARE MILES WILL BE INUNDATED.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 27 — Actual starvation confronts the victims of the floods in the lower Ohio valley today and relief expeditions are working hard to get supplies to the people in the inundated sections. In many places the people are eating raw potatoes, which is the only food available. Hundreds have been found living in upper stories of dwellings without food or fire for several days.

President Taft has instructed the war department to take immediate steps to relieve the suffering.

Mississippi Still Rising—

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 27 — The crevasse in the levee at Beulah, Miss., is growing rapidly and the engineers in charge of the work there say it will be the cause of submerging 1,000 square miles of territory.
Traffic on the Yazoo & Mississippi railroad has been suspended. Near Benoit a family was rescued from the top of a big tree. There were heavy rains throughout the Mississippi river valley Sunday and Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Upcot of Olinda, Ontario, Canada, arrived in the city yesterday and will spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. F. J.
Caldwell at their home on First avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Upcot are on their wedding trip and Mr. Upcot is a cousin of Mrs. Caldwell.

HOME OF E. W. GREENE IS ROBBED

BURGLAR GETS $15 IN CASH
OUT OF TROUSERS' POCKET

FIRST BROKE INTO TOOL HOUSE AND WALKED THROUGH SOFT
GROUND IN STOCKING FEET TOWARD HOUSE.

Gaining an entrance through a side window, burglars went through the home of former Mayor E. W.
Greene, North Ridgewood avenue and Bay street, early Sunday morning and made a clean getaway with $15 in cash, taken from the pockets of Mr.
Greene's trousers in his bedroom.

The only clew left by the burglar, was a series of tracks made by a man evidently in his stocking-ed feet, through the truck garden of Geo. W. Parker to the west of the Greene place, leading toward the Greene home.

The robbery was evidently carefully planned and, if there was but one man made the entrance to the house, it is believed he at least had assistance in the way of lookouts on the outside.

The robber or robbers first gained entrance to the building used as a tool house by Mr. Parker in his truck garden, pulling the staple which holds the lock to the door in place. Tools, bottles, etc., were swept from the shelves to the floor of the tool house, probably in the effort of the burglars to find some tools to be used in gaining an entrance to the house.

The robber in the house was provided with a flashlight and a slight noise made by the man attracted the attention of a sister of Mrs.
Greene, who noticed the flashing of the light about the room. The woman reached for a flashlight near the bed, and this movement frightened the man, who made a rush through the house and escaped by the same window he had entered.

The noise awakened Mr. Greene, and a search revealed that nothing had been taken but the cash removed from the pockets of his trousers. There is suspicion the robbery may have been committed by the same gang which operated in Daytona during the early part of last season.

RIOTS AT STEEL PLANT IN PITTSBURGH CONTINUE TODAY

600 EMPLOYEES OUT ON STRIKE AND ONE DEPUTY SHERIFF IS FATALLY STABBED DURING RIOTS.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 27 — Rioting continued all last night and today at the Rankin plant of the American Steel and Wire company, where 600 employees are now out on strike.

Deputy Sheriff Davis was fatally stabbed in a fight with two strikers and many shots have been fired.

ABIDING PLACE OF MICROBES

Eliminate the Vacant Seat and the Church Will Bloom Into Splendid Health.

There are microbes that are menacing the church with dire defeats; they're bacilli that produce the plague entitled Vacant Seats. There's an influence arising from these weary, dreary pews, that's as pestilential as the breath of rank, malarial dews. If diagnosis we would make of churches void of heat, we'd find the mercury had dropped down in the vacant seat.
The doctors ought to busy get, the church's health to save, because this situation is becoming very grave.
Napoleon wished once, 'tis said, to break a conquered bell; his soldiers swung their hammers free, and pounded hard and well; but firm, uninjured, strong, it stood, resisting every stroke, until they hit from the inside, and then, it quickly broke. Thus what the church needs most to fear, is not the outside sin, but spineless, lackadaisical inactivity within. And that which blocks and trips the church, and rolls her down the stairs, is the nominal adherent who, however, isn't there. If we could but eliminate this stunting empty seat, the church would soar in glorious flight, amazingly complete. There is a remedy that works at any time and place; it's every one, at every time, and always, in his place. If you would give this formula a keen, conclusive search, just try it well, next Sunday, at the Presbyterian church, or any place of worship where you feel you'd like to be, and the medicine and healing you'll find tally to a T.—The Continent.

Worried Hero.

A critic of Wells' novel, "Marriage," finds in the confounding of the hero
"the desire to have it all ways; to pos-feminine; who shall, by the grossness of her desires and the pettiness of conversation, give him an agreeable sense of superiority, and yet shall, to order, acquire deep spiritual insight when her husband feels he needs it."

Expert Opinion.

"The best up hat. You're not sitting on it, are you, sir?"
"Is it a stiff hat or a soft one?"
"A soft one."
"Does it suit you?"—Meggendorfer Editor.

What is the Answer?

It happened during the construction of one of Kansas City's skyscrapers. The men while here had a problem, working on the floor above that on which he had left his street clothes, wanted some change from his pocket book and ordered his tender to go and get it.

The tender passed. "Look again, Mr. Smith," he objected. "If some body has already stole your money, I suppose that you will tell me that you are going to stay here."

Although struck by the seeming justice of the objection, the tenderer was impatient. "What's the matter with you?" he ejaculated. "Nobody has stolen my money. You go ahead and if the money is gone I won't blame you."

The tender departed, to return in a few minutes and stand just inside the door. "Well," said the tenderer pointedly.

The tender shuffled his feet, who-eyed and incoherent. "It's just like I told you, boss, just like I told you. Some body else robbed you. I've found a note in your clothes."—Kansas City Star.

A Quiet Oriental Story.

A recent English traveler in Bohemia had from a lady maid in that country a story about Moses which does not appear in the Scriptures, yet which has its pertinence to this matter of politicians proposing to do away with all the evils of the human lot, says the Century Magazine. The traveler was sitting in his house very old and the Lord said to him, "Foolish Moses, why art thou set down?" "Alas," said he, "I see so many people sorrowful. Some are unclothed, and some are hungry. I pray thee make all happy and contented." The Lord said, "It should be so. But now Moses was again discontented, and once more the Lord asked the same. 'Lord,' cried the prophet, 'the upper story of my house has fallen down, and needs will come to mend it. They are all busy enjoying themselves.' 'But what am I to do?' 'Lord, make the people as they were before!'"

Music Among the Negrillos.

The music and dancing of the Negrillos are especially interesting. Many of them know how to make and to play both the bamboo bow, fife and a kind of jews-harp made from bamboo. Some of them use crude stringed instruments fashioned from single joints of bamboo, the strings being cut from the outer layer of wood, to which their ends remain attached, and being raised up by means of bridges. The distribution of the several kinds of musical instruments above mentioned is more or less local, but the bronze tumbour or "gizax" is in universal use, although some Negrillos play it with a drumstick, while others beat it with their hands. Many of their dances are pantomimic. Their singing is often weird in the extreme. It would be idle to describe it. Only photographic records could do it partial justice.—National Geographic Magazine.

Chinese Chorus Girls.

In some Chinese theaters the stage manager has an economical custom of employing dummy figures cut out of cardboard and the like, to swell the ranks of the chorus without at the same time swelling the salary list. Obviously, such a device would never do in this country, for a cardboard chorus girl would hardly satisfy the matrimonial requirements of our glided youth. In China it is most unusual for women to appear on the stage, and the feminine roles are taken by boys.

Kindness.

"Has my boy been kind to the dumb animals today?" "Yes, grandma. I let your cat catch it I set Towser on her."—Fun.

BIG HIGHWAY IS NEARING COMPLETION

WILL BRING MANY MORE CARS TO THE STATE OF FLORIDA

OFFICIAL OF GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATIONS DECLARES STATE WILL BENEFIT BY INTERNATIONAL ROAD.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 27.—Early completion of the Miami-Quebec international highway and the consequent increase in automobile traffic from the north to Miami is the opinion of Frederick T. Smith, good roads enthusiast and good roads expert, now in the city from Bridgeport, N. J. Mr. Smith is president of the New Jersey Automobile and Good Roads association, special officer of the American Association of Highway Improvement and a member of the board of American Automobile association and the Miami-Quebec International Highway association.

According to Mr. Smith, the Miami-Quebec highway is rapidly nearing completion. From House's Point, on the border line between the United States and Canada, to Washington, D. C., the highway is complete, and furnishes motorists with a road over which they can drive their machines at least at the rate of 25 miles per hour. From Washington to Richmond the old road has been reconstructed and given up as a bad job, and a new road built on the ridge of hills and taking in some 1,000 Civil war and Revolutionary battlefields. This road has been built by a special fund subscribed from various sources. The board of trade of Richmond gave $15,000. The road hits just as many of the state capitals as possible. Twelve principal cities are touched on the way from Quebec to Miami. Mr. Smith, who has been over the whole route, states that it is a beautiful scenic route, and one which is bound to become immensely popular. For the greater part of the way it follows the old post roads. There are but few hills and no mountains.

Many Autos Next Year —

The association discouraged auto owners from coming to Florida with their cars this year because of the bad condition of the roads, and partly on this account, there are fewer visiting autos in Florida this year than last, says Mr. Smith. Next year, however, he states, the Miami-Quebec association is going to advertise Florida's roads to "beat the band," and will put into the state three or four times as many autos as are here this year.

"I believe the advertising we are going to put out will bring to Florida somewhere around 5,000 automobiles, and if they carry the average number of persons, four, and each one of the four spends $100 in the state—and I don't see how in the world they can get out with less—the sum of money that will be left with you will be around $1,000,000. Those are conservative figures, and their importance ought to be generally realized."

Between now and next fall it is the plan of the Miami-Quebec association to have signs placed every three or four hundred feet along the way, using telegraph and telephone poles for the purpose; these signs are to be in the shape of a double arrow—one pointing to Miami, and the other to Quebec. On the sign, which is to be painted black, with a golden orange for Florida, and the letters "M. & Q." Miami will thus be advertised by about 24,000 signs, all the way up the Atlantic coast of the United States.

According to Mr. Smith, the good roads movement has received a remarkable impetus in Florida this year. Bonds of thousands of dollars have been levied in many of the counties, and in Mr. Smith's opinion, the entire system will be completed by next October. In case this is done a big circular will be gotten out by the Miami-Quebec highway association having as its principal feature a map of the eastern side of the continent with the international highway designated with a big black line. The system of roads in Florida which the Florida good roads association is pushing to completion, running through the central part of the state to the west coast and to Tallahassee in the northern part, will be shown in the same way and every effort made to get people to come to Florida with their cars via Miami-Quebec international highway.

The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World)Gen. Charles Lee—The Traitor Who Threatened America

GEN. WASHINGTON and his staff thundered up, through the broiling summer heat, to the stricken battlefield of Monmouth. News had reached the commander-in-chief that his trusted leader, Gen. Charles Lee, had disobeyed orders and that as a result, the American army was retreating.

Washington took in the situation at a glance. The patriots were falling back. The British were everywhere successful. His blue eyes ablaze with anger, the chief galloped across to Lee.

"In heaven's name, General," he shouted, "what means this ill-timed prudence?"

"I know of no one," sneered Lee, "who has more of that abominable virtue than your excellency."

At this retort the last barriers of Washington's patience gave way. He hurled at Lee a public reprimand that the latter never forgot nor forgave. It was a case of a just man's wrath at a blackguard's misdeeds.

Charles Lee was born in England in 1731. He joined the British army as a mere child. At the age of eleven he was a commissioned officer. He fought in America during the French and Indian war and rose fast in rank to a lieutenant-colonelcy. But he had a sarcastic tongue and an unquenchable temper. He criticized his superior officers and made fun of their weaknesses. This sort of thing does not help a man on in any walk of life. It led at last to Lee's practical dismissal from the army. He drifted to Poland and Russia, where, serving as a soldier of fortune, he received the rank of major-general. He also won doubtful fame as a ferocious duelist.

Leaving Russia, Lee made his way to America a short time before the Revolution. He hated England and he loved intrigue. So he plunged into the stirring politics of the day, siding with the patriots. The Revolutionary army was short of experienced officers and was delighted to accept the services of so noted a soldier as Lee. He was offered the rank of second major-general under General Washington. He bargained shrewdly with congress before accepting this honor, declaring that King George's government would surely confiscate his British estates, and demanding to be paid for them. Congress agreed to give him $30,000 out of the impoverished patriot treasury as recompense for this possible loss.

Now began Lee's American military career. From the first he seems to have had two aims. One, to seize Washington's position as commander-in-chief; the other, to sell the American cause, at the best possible terms, to the British. After more than once risking the army's welfare by disobeying Washington's orders, Lee was captured at Basking Ridge, N. J., by the British. Whether or not he consented to the capture in order to carry out his treason plot cannot be known. But during his captivity (most of which he spent in a suite of rooms in New York City Hall) he came to terms of understanding with the British general, Howe, and explained to him his ideas on how best to crush the Revolution. Thinking he would be of more use to them in the Revolutionary army than in prison, the British set him free in 1778 and he went back to his duties. (The complete draft of Lee's plan, by which the colonies might be overthrown, was found in 1857 among General Howe's private papers.)

Then came the battle of Monmouth. The English, under Clinton, in June, 1778, evacuated Philadelphia and retreated across New Jersey to the British headquarters at New York. Washington resolved to smash part of the British army at Monmouth, N. J., on its march. Lee begged him not to make the attempt, but Washington sent him with an advance guard of 6,000 men to overtake the enemy. Lee caught up with the British at Monmouth on June 28, 1778, and began the battle in so strange and incompetent a way that Lafayette, in alarm, sent a secret message begging Washington to hurry to the front. Washington arrived in time to meet Lee in full retreat. He rebuked the traitor, rallied the army and saved the day.

No one could understand Lee's odd behavior, for no one then knew he was false. In rage at the rebuke, he wrote two insulting letters to Washington, who promptly ordered him arrested. A court-martial suspended him from active service for a year. In rage, he retired to a mountain hut, where, for months, he lived like a hermit.

As his year of suspension drew to an end, Lee wrote an abusive letter to congress, and was at once dismissed from the army. He went to live on an estate he had bought in the Shenandoah Valley. In 1782 he visited Philadelphia, where he fell ill and died.

GENIUS AND VANITY.

Schopenhauer Was Not a Bit Afraid to Praise Himself Out Loud.

Schopenhauer, the great German philosopher, afforded one of the most remarkable examples of self complacency that has ever been known. His naive eulogisms on his own productions are almost beyond belief. In writing to his publishers of his work he says: "Its worth and importance are so great that I do not venture to express it even toward you because you could not believe me," and he proceeds to quote a review "which speaks of me with the highest praise as the greatest philosopher of the age, which is really saying much less than the good man thinks."

"Sir," he said to an unoffending stranger who watched him across a table d'hôte where he acted the part of the local "lion" habitually—"sir, you are evidently astonished at my appetite. True, I eat three times as much as you, but then I have three times as much mind."

Auerbach, the German novelist, also had a great appreciation of his own powers and work, and many stories are told of the obtrusive way in which he displayed his vanity. A German writer says of him: "Every year Auerbach visits three or four fashionable watering places, at each of which the following episode occurs at least thirty times. The novelist indulges in small talk with the little children of the natives and invariably ends the conversation thus: 'Knowest thou who has been talking with thee? Behold Auerbach! Tell that at home!'"

GRIT OF A SHARPSHOOTER.

Sergeant Halliwell's Feat at the Siege of Lucknow.

During the siege of Lucknow in the Indian mutiny there was afforded what was probably the most notable instance of the record in war of a crack shot.

The rebels were endeavoring to mount two eighteen-pounders, which they had hauled up to the flat roof of one of the palaces surrounding the residency, and it was necessary to prevent this being done, or they would have been able to pour down a heavy fire on the defenders. Sergeant Halliwell was chosen for this duty. He was a crack shot of the Thirty-second foot.

Being given the best rifle that could be found, his orders were to prevent the guns being mounted. He took up his position behind some battered down masonry where there was only cover for him to lie at full length. He remained in that position, it is said, for several days, not being able to stand, inasmuch as that would have resulted in instant death. His only change was to roll over from his back to his stomach. His eyes were ever kept on the dismounted guns, and whenever the Sepoys attempted to mount them his unerring rifle played havoc among them and prevented their object being accomplished. Food was brought to him at night by men who crawled to his position.

After some time a sortie was made, and the Sepoys were defeated. For this brave work Sergeant Halliwell received the Victoria cross.—Harper's Weekly.

Seven in the Bible.

The number seven plays a prominent part in events in the Bible. The creation took six days, and on the seventh there was rest. On the seventh day of the seventh month a holy observance was ordained, and the Israelites feasted seven days and rested seven days. Noah had seven days' warning of the flood, and the seven years of plenty were foretold in Pharaoh's dream by seven fat beasts, as were the seven lean years by seven lean beasts. We speak of the seven heavens, and the seventh son was supposed to be endowed with pre-eminent wisdom. In short, there is no other number which enters into the Bible so often as seven. No doubt the wide popularity of the number and the superstitions which are connected with it came from its wide use in the Bible.

Tacking Explained.

"What do people mean when they talk about tacking?" asked Bobby, who had listened to a detailed account of his sister's first experience in a sailboat, but in considerable confusion of mind.

"Oh, you'll know when you're a little bit older," said his sister, but the small round face wore an expression of inquiry, and she had to explain further.

"Why, it's just turning halfway round," she said, with slight hesitation, "and then—and then you sail on the bias."

The Gurgling in the Bottle.

Why does water gurgle when poured from a bottle? As water pours out air attempts to pour in. Occasionally the hand holding the bottle may move and give the air the opportunity. The quick rush of the water to fill the hole made by the air causes the gurgling sound.

Grading the Rulers.

Themistocles, it is said, declared that his son was the strongest man in Greece.

"For," said he, "the Athenians rule the Hellenes, I rule the Athenians, your mother rules me, and you rule your mother."

A Really Smart Man.

"He always says the right thing at the right time, doesn't he?" "More than that. He always keeps still at the right time."—Houston Post.

Very Much Easier.

"Any man can make a fool of himself." "True, but with a woman's help it's much easier."—Boston Transcript.

WILL PUNISHMENT BE EVERLASTING?

Sins of Ignorance Will be Forgiven, but All Wilful Sins Will Be Punished, According to Pastor Russell.

Bible Students Now See That They Were Misled by the Creeds of the Dark Ages—They Interpreted the Bible Illogically—Enlightened Study Makes God's Word More Reasonable and More Precious Daily.

PASTOR RUSSELL

Worcester, Mass., January 26.—Pastor Russell had crowds to hear him today. We report his discourse from the text:—"Thou shalt go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal."—Matthew 25:46.

The speaker declared that mankind recognize two great facts: (1) that all are sinners, imperfect; and (2) that a just penalty for sins is proper. This can be admitted even by those who deny that the Bible is inspired. He believes that our forefathers added to Scriptures, with out realizing it.

The Baptist "Underworld."

"Our Baptist friends, in their new translation of the Bible, use the term 'underworld.' Instead of hell, to translating Sheol and Hades. This is a step in the right direction. All educated people know that Sheol and Hades signify the death condition. Why should Christian ministers spend years in seminaries to learn these things, and then fear to tell people the facts? Do they not realize that the misunderstanding of this subject is stumbling thinking people into Higher-Criticism, infidelity, etc., and leading to atheism and anarchy?"

What the Bible Does Teach.

The Bible declares death to be the extreme penalty of the Divine Law—as of human law. Adam's execution was a tragedy—4300 years of dying. His descendants share his condemnation. The death sentence would have ended our race, had not Divine Mercy provided Jesus as our Redeemer. He is to deliver mankind from bondage to death, during the Millennium.

Meantime, this Gospel Age has been introduced for gathering His Church. When it is completed, the Kingdom will be inaugurated for blessing all mankind. Then whosoever will may return to full harmony with God and attain everlasting life.

The Parable of the Sheep and the Goats belongs to the Millennium. We recall the Scriptural promises that when Jesus shall appear in glory, His Church will appear with Him; and thus we know that the parable is not yet fulfilled. After the completion of the Church, Messiah will establish His Kingdom.

Mankind will then be on trial to determine who desire to be the Lord's sheep, and who will manifest the wayward, goat-like disposition. A thousand years have been apportioned to separate sheep from goats. At its close, all having the sheep disposition of meekness will be at the Mediator's right hand of favor, but all having the goat disposition will be at His left—place of disfavor.

The sheep will receive the kingdom originally given to Adam. The goats will be sentenced to everlasting fire—destruction. Elsewhere they are said to go into "the lake of fire," the Second Death.—Revelation 20:14.

Gehenna Fire Unquenchable.

Gehenna is the Greek name for the valley outside Jerusalem, where offal was destroyed. Fires were burned there to kill the germs of putrefaction. Into that valley were cast dead dogs, cats, etc., upon which worms fed. This picture Jesus used to illustrate Divine Government in the end of His reign. Wilful evil-doers will perish in the antitypical Gehenna—the Second Death.

Another suggestion by the Master was that hands, feet and eyes had better be destroyed than that the individual go into the Second Death. No one thinks that the Lord meant us literally to cut off our hands and feet; nor should we think that He referred to literal fire. The lesson taught is that everlasting life is worth any sacrifice. If a sin seems as precious as a hand or an eye, we should separate from it at any cost, to attain everlasting life.

"Into Everlasting Punishment."

Our text declares that the goat class will go into everlasting punishment. What is the nature of that punishment? The Scriptures say that "the wages of sin is death"—not eternal torment. So the Master really said that the goat class will go into the Second death. None will be rescued from it in any manner.

The word punishment, in our text comes from the Greek kolasin. In classical Greek, kolasin means to prune, as to cut out dead branches from a tree. So Jesus really said that the goat class will go away into everlasting cutting off—from life—into everlasting death.

A pamphlet explaining the parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus will be sent free to any making a postcard request. Address Brooklyn Tabernacle, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Confounding a Braggart.

At the time when Louis Napoleon was president of the French republic the commander at Lyons was General Castelnau, an old soldier whose stern rule kept in check the riotous spirits of that disorderly city. One of the most haughty of the latter was a barber, who openly boasted that he only waited for the opportunity of ridding the city of its stern commander. The general heard of the threat and one afternoon ordered his coachman to drive to the barber's shop. Leaving his carriage, the general entered the shop unattended, took a seat in a vacant chair and desired the barber to shave him. The astonished braggart performed the operation as well as his nervousness would permit. When he had finished the general, while paying him, quietly said:

"Monsieur, since you have not availed yourself of the opportunity to cut my throat which I have given you, would it not be wise for you to refrain from uttering threats that you have not the courage to carry out?"

The New Maid.

Mrs. Brown-Jones (which isn't her name at all, nor nothing like it) has a new parlor maid. Last Thursday was Mrs. B.-J.'s day at home. Six callers were at the door, and each proffered her card.

Hilda looked the cards over carefully one by one.

"Youse ladies iss all wrong!" she decided finally. "One of your tickets iss fer Mrs. Choseph Thompson, one iss fer Mrs. Miller, one iss fer Miss Chunks and Miss Mabel Chunks—and den dere's t'ree odders, all wrong names, yet. Try next door. Goodbye!"

Then she went back to her mistress. "None of 'em wanted to see you," she beamed. "Deir tickets was fer odder houses. I guess maybe dey ain't lified here long!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Won a Grim Smile.

A certain European regiment stationed in northern India has a colonel who has only once been seen to laugh.

A private of this corps, while a prisoner in the guard room for a military offense, bet the sergeant of the guard 5 rupees that he would make the commanding officer laugh when he was taken before him.

In due course, after reading the charge, the colonel asked the prisoner: "Have you anything to say?"

"I won't say anything more about it, sir, if you won't," was the unexpected reply.

The grim face relaxed, but the stern decision came all the same:

"Fourteen days confined to barracks."—London Answers.

Lamb's Stammer.

If you must stammer try to stammer to yourself. When you have tut-tutted and gur-gurred sufficiently to yourself you will be ready with the word. It is quite astonishing how soon the inaudible stammer becomes unnecessary and the word is whipped out. But there are some men who hdg a stammer—stammering always in the right place—lifting curiosity to tiptoe in the listener. Charles Lamb stammered, but always in the right place, as when he went to buy cheese the story may be quite untrue. The shop man offered to send it home. Lamb inspected it. Then he asked for a bit of string. "I think," he said, "I could let it head it home."—London Spectator.

The Harvest.

Where the river winds through grassy meadows as sure as the south wind brings the rain, sounding his note in the reedy alders, the stalling comes back to his nest again. Are these not miracles? Promptly you answer.

"Merely the prose of natural fact; nothing but instinct plain and patent, born in the creatures, that bids them act." Well, I have an instinct as fine and valid, surely, as that of the beasts and birds, concerning death and the life immortal, too deep for logic, too vague for words. No trace of beauty can pass or perish, but other beauty is somewhere born; no seed of truth or good be planted, but the yield must grow as the growing corn.—Bliss Carman.

The Tact Market.

Chancellor James R. Day was once advising a young undergraduate of Syracuse university to cultivate tact. "But, alas," he said, "I fear that advice on such a subject must always be wasted. On tact the last word was spoken by Barbey d'Aureville when he said:

"If tact could be bought only those already possessed of it would want to buy it."

The Gloaming.

"What's the gloaming, Uncle Wilham?"

"Well, before a man is married it is the time to take a walk with the girl he loves, but after he is married it is the time he falls over rocking horses and building blocks on the parlor floor."—London Telegraph.

Her Quick Wit.

He—Your new hat is charming, but I fancy it doesn't go well with that dress. She (enchanted)—Oh, you dear old hubby, so you really mean to buy me a dress as well?

Practiced What He Preached.

Hills—Grout says that he believes in keeping in touch with his fellow men. Hills—Well, there aren't many of them that he hasn't touched.

COOKING SWEET POTATOES.

SWEET potatoes when cooked right are exceedingly palatable. They are best baked. If boiled the skins should remain on until they are cooked.
Then they should be pared and allowed to dry in a moderate oven before serving. If desired they may be fried. If always cooked in these few simple ways, however, the potatoes become monotonous. Some unusual recipes for cooking this vegetable are given here.

Potatoes and Nuts.

Sweet Potato Molds.—Take six medium sized sweet potatoes and boil until tender. Then peel and mash, adding one teaspoonful of powdered sugar, two tablespoonfuls melted butter, one tablespoonful salt, a pinch of paprika and one-half cupful chopped nut meats.
Beat with a fork until very light and then fold in quickly the stiffly whipped whites of two eggs. Pour into molds or individual baking dishes and set in a pan of hot water for twenty minutes.
Scalloped Sweet Potatoes.—Take cold sweet potatoes, slice these and arrange them in a baking dish, buttering each layer well and sprinkling with light brown sugar. Pour in about half a cupful of hot water, cover and bake half an hour, uncover and crisp on top.

Fancy Fried Sweet Potatoes.

Spiced Fried Sweet Potatoes.—Take three or four medium sized sweet potatoes, boil these; then pare and cut in pieces the size of a nutmeg. Place in a frying pan one-half cupful of brown sugar and one-quarter cupful butter.
Cook the potatoes in this mixture until the whole is soft. Cook slowly, shaking the pan occasionally to keep them from burning.Sweet Potato Croquettes.—Take six medium sized sweet potatoes, boil and peel and when perfectly cold mash them fine and mix with one tablespoonful butter and two eggs. Season with a half teaspoonful salt and a quarter teaspoonful white pepper. Mixing all together, form the potatoes into cork shaped croquettes or into small balls the size of a walnut. Dip them into beaten egg and roll in breadcrumbs.
Fry in hot fat to fine golden color.

Her Own Hat the Obstruction.

A woman in a Vienna theater came out after the first act and asked to have the price of the ticket refunded, on the ground that having complied with the request to remove her hat she had held it on her knees and thus entirely obstructed her own view of the stage.

What Fleet Street Wants.

The Newaby—"Yus, lady, the only thing we'll do us much good now is a good 'terrible murder reg'lar once a week!"—London Opinion.nearly all other Gulf and Atlantic ports and the heaviest vessels of commerce.—Port Meade Leader.The shrieking of a parrot in the Bayview hotel in Sarasota was probably responsible for the saving of a number of persons in that building from death or injury in a fire which burned the structure to the ground.
Landlord Houston had a narrow escape from death, while several other occupants of the hotel leaped from second-story windows and others made their way hastily from the building clad only in their night clothes. None were injured, but the building was a total loss.

"I am an American citizen," said

PICKERT STOCK COMPANY

CLOSES ENGAGEMENT HERE

The Pickerts closed the week's engagement here Saturday night with a breezy western comedy drama,
"The Boss of L Ranch." For some reason the attendance was not so large as had been accorded this well known company earlier in the week, still they played to a fair sized audience. The Pickerts is one of the best known companies visiting this city and has always been popular with Daytonians since the first appearance of the Four Pickerts, then in vaudeville, some ten or a dozen years ago, when the youngest member, Blanche, at that time in her teens, became a popular favorite.
When making the announcement of coming attractions at the New Daytona theatre, Val C. Cleary, who took the leading role of the evening, stated that the Pickerts hoped to return to Daytona again next season and might possibly repeat their engagement here the present season.

*Elks' dance Wednesday evening,

Man's Power in Nature.
"Victory over things is the office of man. Each man is a new power in nature. He holds the key of the world in his hands—no truth which he cannot see."

Le Beau Christie went down to Palm Beach Saturday to visit a friend at that place until tomorrow, when he will return to Daytona.
